CODE OF CONDUCT

For all volunteers including Parents and Citizen's Association members, Committee members and Parent Representatives.

This Code of Conduct has been adopted to aid all members of our school community to work as a well-ordered group that promotes interest and facilitates development to further improve Kenilworth State Community College.

A harmonious working environment is essential to the effective conduct of our school's volunteer contribution and job satisfaction. To this end, we have agreed to the following:

- Compliance with the Education Queensland Code of Conduct.
- Personal privacy is of paramount importance. Information gathered or obtained as a result of the role as a volunteer or P&C employee MUST be considered confidential and is only to be passed on to the relevant school authority WITH the permission of the person disclosing the information.
- Treating all people with Dignity, Courtesy, Honesty and Fairness at all times.
- Constructive criticism is healthy while personal attacks are destructive and to be avoided.

We do have separate functions but we strive to work as a team.

I agree to hold to this code and hereby place my signature.
